Ann Pennington, more attractive than ever (if possible), will be the featured member of George White's "Scandals of 1921," opening at the Liberty early in July.

Jean Thomas as she appears in "The Last Waltz," now having a good run at the Century Theatre.

"Red" Newman, who scores a hit in singing "Oh, It's a Lovely War" with the "Dumbbells," at the Ambassador Theatre.

Madame Alla Nazimova, who is contemplating a return to the speaking stage, after four years in motion pictures. Her last screen production is a picturization of Dumas's "Camille."

Marjorie Kearns, whose talent and good looks contribute much to the success of "The Whirl of New York," at the Winter Garden.

Blanche Ring is scoring again in "The Broadway Whirl," which opened recently in the Times Square Theatre.
